Rhode Island Fire Academy Training Program In Conjunction With The Rhode Island Chapter of the International Association of Arson Investigators

NFPA 921 AND 1033 FIRE INVESTIGATOR TRAINING

NFPA instructors will present a two-day program in Using NFPA 921 to Meet the Professional Qualifications for the Fire Investigator in NFPA 1033. This course will introduce students to the relationship between the fire investigator minimum job performance requirements (JPRs) outlined in NFPA 1033: Standard for Professional Qualifications Fire Investigator, and the guidelines and recommendations found in the latest edition of NFPA 921: Guide for Fire and Explosion Investigations. Students will learn how to navigate both documents, and be better able to utilize the wealth of knowledge found within.
